The Store of To-Day and To-Morrow

Yesterday at half-past 1 o'clock at her home, 2635 Monument Avenue, the affair was given for Mrs. John Woolfolk Burke, of Washington, who is spending this week here as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atkinson.

Opening of Marshall House.

To-day the Association for the Preservation of the Virginia Antiquities will hold the opening exercises and a reception in the home of Mr. Chief Justice John Marshall, now the property of the association, at Marshall and Ninth Streets, in this city, at 4 P. M. Judge James Keith, president of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, will preside, and a paper will be read by Mrs. William G. Stanard, historian of the association. The reception will be held at the conclusion of these exercises, and the officers, directors and advisory boards will form the reception committee. The women who have been invited by the association to receive, who are mentioned on the card of invitation, are asked to come without hats.

Distinguished Guests Here.

George Whitelock, secretary of the American Bar Association, will represent that body, the exercises at the John Marshall House this afternoon. He will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Skelton Williams while in the city. Mrs. Henry B. Lee, of Charlottesville, a descendant of Judge Marshall, who is also here, will be the guest of her cousin, Mrs. John K. Mason. Miss Lottie C. Garrett, of Williamsburg, daughter of the Colonial Capital Branch of the A. P. V. A. is in Richmond as the guest of Mrs. Beverly T. Crump, and will receive at the Marshall House this afternoon. Other well known people in the city for this occasion are Mrs. Joseph Brantley, daughter of the Philadelphia Branch, who is registered at the Jefferson Hotel, and will also be in receiving line at the Marshall House; Miss Virginia Miller, daughter of the Washington Branch, who is stopping at the Richmond Hotel; and Miss Anna M. Braxton, who is here to represent the Fredericksburg Branch of the A. P. V. A.

Card Tournament To-Night.

The March card tournament of the Woman's Club will take place this evening at 8:15 o'clock in the club parlors, with auction bridge as the game. The same rules concerning the registering of tables and men partners will prevail, and supper will be served at the card tables after the game is concluded.

Prominent Wedding.

The Minister from the Netherlands and Mme. Louden will sing during the marriage ceremony at 4 o'clock to-day of Miss Celestine Eustis Hitchcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., of Westbury, L. I., and Allen, and Julian L. Peabody, son of Charles Peabody, of New York. The wedding will be celebrated by Bishop Harry P. Northrop, of Charleston, at Mon Repos Villa, the winter home of Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock, and will be a very quiet and simple affair. Miss Hitchcock will wear a clinging gown of brocade crepe de chine, with the rare old lace veil worn by her grandmother, Mrs. George Eustis, at her wedding. She will wear a train which falls from the shoulder of the gown. The bride's veil of tulle will be held by a wreath of orange blossoms, and she will wear the strand of exquisite pearls recently presented to her by her grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock. She will be attended by two bridesmaids, her sister, Miss Helen Hitchcock, and her cousin, Miss Louise Hellen, of Washington. Their gowns will be of yellow chiffon, with quaint fichu of old lace, and their black tulle hats will be trimmed with yellow roses. The bridesmaids will wear a light green gown, with long trousers and a coat of white silk, with a high ruffled collar, and will carry a stiff, old-fashioned bouquet. The wedding march will be played by Little Edward Morris, of Baltimore, who will also act as accompanist to Mrs. Louden, who was Miss Lydia Eustis, when she sang George's "Love Maria" during the ceremony. Mrs. Louden and the minister will then sing a Schumann duet. After the ceremony an informal reception will follow before the departure of the bride and bridegroom for a short trip before sailing to spend the summer abroad. Only the immediate relatives and a few intimates have been invited to the ceremony. Mrs. Hitchcock's brother, William Corcoran Eustis, will come from Washington for the ceremony, and Mrs. Benjamin Hellen will arrive with her daughter, Miss Louise Hellen. George Morris Eustis, son of George Eustis, Mrs. Hitchcock's brother, will come from school to be present. Miss Celestine Eustis, the bride, is a daughter of the late W. W. Corcoran, his daughter having married the Hon. George Eustis, representative for many years from Louisiana. Among those coming from New York for the wedding will be Mr. Peabody's father, Charles L. Peabody, his brother, John D. Peabody, who will act as the best man; his sister, Miss Anita Peabody, and his aunt, Miss Damon. Concerning Miss McKay. Congratulations are being showered upon Miss Eleanor McKay, of Omaha, Nebraska, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams, at 500 West Franklin Street, she having received a telegram stating that while her home was in the track of the storm, her family escaped all injury. Miss McKay, who is a student at a fashionable school in Washington, is spending her Easter holidays here, and has been much admired during her visit to Richmond. She is a lovely girl and some very handsome entertaining has been done in her honor.

Annual Convention.

The annual convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Clinton Forge on April 29 and 30. Mrs. M. M. Caldwell, of Roanoke, president of the State Federation, will preside over the meeting. As there are now twenty-seven federated clubs, in all probability the attendance will be larger than ever before. Among the well known women who will make addresses on this occasion are Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, of Austin, Texas, president of the General Federation; Mrs. William E. Andrews, of Washington, director-general federation board; and Mrs. Eugene H. Kelley, of North Carolina, general federation corresponding secretary. A very attractive and interesting program has been arranged, and the meeting promises to be one of unusual interest.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Nancy Patton, of West Franklin Street, is spending this week with friends in New York City.

The Misses Cosby, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are guests of their aunt, Mrs. T. Ashby Miller, at her home near West-hampton.

Miss Therese Nurney returned Tuesday to Suffolk, after a short visit to relatives here.

Miss Virginia Robertson, of Danville, will be the guest of Miss Alston Drake here until Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Kennedy has returned to her home in Glinter Park, having completed her school session near Victoria.

John Powell has returned from New York, and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Smith Brockenbrough, at her home here.

Taylor Scott has returned to the University of Virginia, after spending the Easter holidays with his parents, Judge and Mrs. R. Carter Scott.

Wallace Henderson has returned to the city, after an extended stay in Waynesboro.

Miss Mary Traylor left town yesterday to spend a short time with friends at Old Point Comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Waller, of this city, have been the recent guests of relatives in Roanoke.

Miss Nell Corneal, who has been at the Hot Springs and visiting friends in the West, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Janet T. Randolph, of Nelson County, is spending some time here at 307 West Grace Street.

Earle Graves, of this city, will leave shortly to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Phillips, in Alexandria.

Miss Amy Warren, of Norfolk, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Morris Warren, here.

Mrs. Louis Kennedy, of this city, is visiting relatives at Charlottesville.

Fredericksburg Weddings.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., March 26.—John P. Mattox and Miss Lottie L. Mundy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Mundy, of Orange County, were married a few days ago at the home in Pittsylvania County of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shuler. Rev. A. N. Padgett performed the ceremony.

Henry Bickers and Miss Elsie Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, both of Madison County, were married a few days ago at the Methodist parsonage in Orange County. Rev. J. W. Lavinder performed the ceremony.

SMALL CROWD GREET INSTITUTE TRAIN

Farmers Around Fredericksburg
Did Not Have Notice of Agricultural Lectures.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., March 26.—When the Farmers' Institute train arrived here Tuesday afternoon, only a small crowd had gathered to hear the lectures, as such short notice had been given. W. D. Zinn, of West Virginia, spoke on soil improvement and corn growing. C. T. Rice, of Bedford County, discussed dairying, and W. W. Sprow, of Augusta County, had potato growing as his subject.

The following vestry has been elected by Trinity Church: Messrs. W. H. Richards, Sr., John S. Berry, G. B. Pearson, W. F. Coates, John F. Scott, J. T. Brauer, C. H. Hudson, Thomas M. Pley.

Rev. John R. Jacobs and P. V. D. Conway have gone to Baltimore to attend the annual Methodist Conference which meets in that city to-day.

Messrs. H. F. Crismond, Spotswood C. Foster and L. J. Payne are attending the State Convention of Woodmen of the World, in Petersburg, representatives of Live Oak Camp, of this city.

Governor Mann has appointed Colonel E. P. Cole, of this city, one of the delegates from Virginia to the Fourth National Peace Congress, which will be held in St. Louis, Mo., May 1, 2 and 3, 1913.

Easter German at V. P. I. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Blackburg, Va., March 26.—Easter week gayeties at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute had a pleasant beginning Monday night with the germinating of pennants to decorate the walls, and clusters of electric lights in colored bulbs forming the words "Welcome, Easter, 1913," were placed in the entrance.

The venerable organ of the Holyrood's orchestra, of Roanoke, and a course supper was served in the dining hall at midnight, this being under the management of the Woman's Club, of Blackburg. The chapters included wives of the members of the faculty, women of the town, Miss Mattie Harris, of Virginia College, and others.

The very pretty figures of the German were led by Myron R. Evans, of Amherst, with Miss Ruth Maurice, of Sweet Briar College.

Among the couples dancing were Miss Irene Fisher, Roanoke, and Mr. Burruss; Miss Ellen Bell, Pulaski, and Mr. Robinson; Miss Sara Bell, Pulaski, and Mr. Steele; Miss Mary Massie, Pulaski, and Mr. Tice; Miss Rebecca Patterson, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Williams; Miss Liz Otter, of Blackburg, and Mr. Beverley; Miss Helen Otter, Wytheville, and Mr. Harvey; Miss Louise Hoge, Blackburg, and Mr. Fitzgerald; Miss Dorothy Hucker, Roanoke, and Mr. Heth, Jr.; Miss Julia Trolinger, Radford, and Mr. Greger; Miss Anne Cassell, Radford, and Mr. Goodloe; Miss Antoinette Johnson, Sweet Briar College, and Mr. Macon; Miss Susie Robinson, Blackburg, and Mr. Todd; Miss Margaret Barringer, Blackburg, and Mr. Legge; Miss Eugenia Barringer, Hollins, and Mr. Trimble; Miss Mary Henderson, Blackburg, and Colonel Bordie; Mrs. Margaret D. C. and Mr. Rowe; Mrs. W. H. Evans, Amherst, and Mr. Myrick; Miss Harriet Evans, Amherst, and Mr. Shackelford; Miss Nancy Brown, Blackburg, and Mr. Sutton; Miss Virginia Evans, Roanoke, and Mr. Andrews; Miss DeLothy Mayo, Hollins, and Mr. McCue; Miss Waidick, Richmond, and Mr. Rives; Miss Helen Shallen, Roanoke, and Mr. Snidow; Miss Dushane, Sweet Briar College, and Mr. Dushane; Miss Irma Welford, Memphis, and Mr. Foxe; Miss Shannon, Roanoke, and Mr. Sutton; Miss Eleanor Terry, Wytheville, and Mr. Levy.

Center—Frank. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Luray, Va., March 26.—John C. Senter, of Roanoke, and Miss Lena Frank, daughter of L. M. Frank, supervisor of Luray District, were married last night at the bride's home, one mile south of Luray. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Hufferd, of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Luray.

After Wound Is Dressed He Comes to Richmond for Pasteur Treatment. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., March 26.—John C. Senter, a well-known farmer, who lives near Gladys, was attacked and severely bitten by a mad dog yesterday afternoon while bringing a load of tobacco to the local market for sale. The dog attacked Mr. Senter not far from Naruna, and he left his tobacco and went to see Dr. Hewitt, at Naruna, who dressed the wounds and advised Mr. Senter to lose no time in going to the Pasteur Institute, at Richmond, for treatment.

Mr. Senter took the train to Lynchburg and left on an early train this morning for Richmond for treatment. He was bitten about his left hand, having several painful wounds. It could not be learned here whether or not the dog was killed, but it is believed there is no doubt about the animal having had rabies.

NARROWLY ESCAPES BEING RE-ARRESTED

Young Gasimir-Perier Often
Given Credit for Having Title.

BY LA MARQUE DE FONTENAY.

YOUNG Claude Gasimir-Perier, who is a frequent visitor to this country with his wife, the Parisian actress, Mme. Simone, whom he married after her divorce from the actor, Le Bargy, is not a count, although frequently described as such in the American and Canadian newspapers in connection with his wife's theatrical tours. This is in answer to an inquiry which I have received on the subject from a reader of these letters.

He narrowly escaped being a count, however. For his great-grandfather, Claude Perier, the famous banker and financier, who was perhaps the most autocratic and quarrelsome of all the premiers of the reign of King Louis Philippe, had made all arrangements to secure for himself the dignity of count from the crown. Indeed, it was with this object in view that he purchased for two million francs the historic chateau and estate of Villiers, which had belonged to the Dukes of Villeroi, and caused his genealogical tree to be prepared.

His cabinet was overthrown before he could complete the transaction, and not long afterwards he succumbed to an attack of cholera. He had been more feared than loved by King Louis Philippe, and was held in absolute aversion by the monarch's clever sister, Princess Adelaide, and by all the royal princes, from the Duke of Orleans down to the youngest, the Duc de Nemours. So that his heirs were unable to obtain the title with which the old financier had projected to coronate his name and eschutcheon.

The chateau of Villiers, which is no longer in the possession of the Perier family, is situated in the Department of Isere, is far more of a palace than

The Best Tonic For Spring Use

(The Home Doctor.)

"To best cleanse the system and rid the blood of those impurities which cause drowsiness, spring fever, sluggish action of the liver and general spring sickness, there is nothing quite so good as a home-made karende tonic prepared as follows: Get from one drug store one-half pint alcohol and one ounce karende; mix these with one-half cupful sugar, then add hot water to make a quart.

"No matter how lacking in strength and energy or how run-down one may be, a tablespoonful of this splendid tonic taken before meals will soon purify the blood, fill one with energy and the feeling of perfect health, and remove all pimples or sallowness. This is a perfect liver regulator, and will do wonders as a family medicine in preventing sickness."

HIS FOOT CUT OFF, BUT LIFE IS SAVED

Luray Youth Has Narrow Escape
When He Falls Under Train.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Luray, Va., March 26.—Frantically clinging to the stirrup of a freight car, by which he had just been knocked down, Oliver Short, a sixteen-year-old boy, had a foot cut off in the Norfolk and Western yards in Luray last night, and had a miraculous escape from death. Young Short, becoming confused, started across the tracks in front of a shifting freight train, when he was knocked down. Fearing that he would be killed, the boy grasped the step to keep from falling completely under the car. In this position he fought desperately to keep his feet from under the train wheels. After one foot had been cut off, the boy managed to keep the other foot free, the wheels cutting off the sole of his shoe. The boy is a son of Jacob Short, a watchman at one of the street crossings in Luray, not more than 200 yards from where the accident occurred. The latter lost an arm on the Norfolk and Western.

Two Men Struck by Train. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Goldsboro, N. C., March 26.—Two white men were struck by the Atlantic Coast Line train that runs between here and Smithfield, Monday night about 9 o'clock. The accident occurred at a point on the main line tracks about one mile south of the Union station. One of the men, James Morling, from Greensboro County, was killed instantly. The other, Charlie Deans, a farmer, living a short distance from Goldsboro, was only slightly injured.

Young Man Kills Himself. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Goldsboro, N. C., March 26.—Isom Pierce, a young man about twenty-four years of age, died at the Goldsboro Hospital. The young man shot himself about 1 o'clock yesterday at his sawmill, a short distance from Warsaw. It is thought that despondency over a seeming lack of success in his business was the cause.

STOMACH SICK?

MI-O-NA Will Prevent Further Troubles.

Here, as in other cities and towns, stomach troubles are ensnaring victims in a most insidious way. Nearly every one is ill-treating the stomach, perhaps unconsciously, but the time comes when we cannot abuse it with impunity. Nature warns us. Distress after eating, belching of gas, that lump of lead feeling in the stomach, headache and lack of energy are warning signals. Now—at once—is the time to stop this distress.

MI-O-NA Stomach Tablets is the remedy. Get a box to-day. Their action is immediate. Besides stopping the distress, MI-O-NA soothes the irritated walls of the stomach and strengthens the gastric follicles so that they pour out their daily supply of digestive materials, causing prompt digestion of the food that is eaten.

MI-O-NA is not an experiment. It is not a cure-all. It is a scientific remedy recommended for but one thing—stomach ills.

Its use stops stomach distress and improves the digestive system so that what you eat is converted into nutrition and the entire system is properly nourished.

So certain are the results of MI-O-NA that it is always sold on the money back if not benefited plan. Tragle Drug Co. and druggists everywhere. 50c a large box.—Advertisement.
